

Traducció de pàgines

A translation plugin has been made available at our DokuWiki so that we can have translated pages for foreing users perusal.

<note important> There is no need to translate all pages, only those containing information for end users, some of which are foreigners. </note>

Whenever this wiki becomes more organized, this option will be disabled in thouse pages where it does not make sense, for instance, pages related to the nmr service managment.
